THE PETITION

This petition is to rally support in order for SAG, AFTRA, WGA, DGA, and any other entertainment unions to put pressure on IMDB.com (owned by Amazon.com) to remove birth dates from their site. We hope that if the unions receive a petition with enough names in support of this action, they will, in turn, put pressure on IMDB -- hopefully, enough pressure that IMDB will voluntarily remove birth dates from all individual's web pages at imdb.com. Whether the Unions help or not these names will be used to file a class action lawsuit on behalf of entertainment industry professionals everywhere that have been adversely affected by their unauthorized personal information, especially their birth date, being revealed and stated on IMDB's webpage

There is so much age discrimination in Hollywood. Even though someone may look or write or direct as a certain aged person would, people lose jobs everyday because they are "just too old" and sometimes "too young". IMDB has become the first source of information for industry professionals and therefore has the most impact on hiring. IMDB has been uncooperative in the past in removing or even changing birth dates. We believe that age should be private as it is in most other industries.

Please join our cause. With your signature and help we can make a change for ourselves and future entertainment industry professionals not to be discriminated against for their age. This petition, after it has gathered over 10000 names, will also be sent to...

PBS

It will also be sent to the district attorney's office to see about investigating IMDB for breaking age discriminatory laws as well as being used to file a class action lawsuit against IMDB (Amazon).

If you are afraid of losing work by signing this petition, please don't be. No one is going to blacklist you for using free speech about discrimination. But, if we don't do something now and IMDB becomes even more important in tracking entertainment industry professionals, it maybe too late to change this. I am a working actor and I am creating this petition because it is important to make positive changes for artists everywhere. Thank you for your support and I look forward to our success.

Sincerely,

Ryan Surratt for Entertainment Industry Professionals Everywhere.

| | | | As an actor, it's about how old I look (whether older or younger than my chronological age). There should be no other issue regarding age, and so showing my chronological age is not necessary. |

| | | | I know for a fact that I have lost jobs due to my birth year being listed on IMDB. I have been told this by numerous sources working on the productions in which I have lost to YOUNGER people. This has made me literally out of work now for a year as of December. I am told every day that I look ten years younger than I am, and when people are looking at me as an Assistant Coordinator to soon move to Coordinator, they think something is wrong with my work at my age, which is simply not true. I was in New York on 9/11/2001 and was out of the business for two years, then returned to college to better my education in production. Now my skills are stronger than ever and I've proven that on the few production jobs I've had. PLEASE help get our ages off of IMBD. |

| | | | My birthdate is on IMDB. I did NOT put it there, I do NOT authorize it's being there. And when I asked IMDB to take it off, they refused. This practice must be changed. IMDB must NOT make public any birthdates that are not approved by the individual in question. |

| 49 | janina anderson | 9/19/2010 2:20 | I agree that ages should be removed from IMDb because there is age discrimination in Hollywood. What is important is not a person's age but how dedicated they are and how good at their craft, an actors, directors, or writers work should speak for itself. Also I have found that if someone puts the Talents age incorrectly on their IMDb page it is very difficult to get it corrected. It is not important for Talent to have their ages on IMDb and I support them being removed. |

| | | | IMDB cares about its corporate sponsorship, not the actors, writers, etc., at all--without whom the website wouldn't ever exist in the first place! Talk about abuse and exploitation, as if Hollywood and the entertainment business in general were not difficult and exploitative enough. The IMDB has created problems where there were once NONE. And they keep citing the Freedom of Information Act, which really is an incredibly broad and abusive interpretation of the act. It's like Don't Ask Don't Tell being interpreted to mean that you can pull illegal searches of certain soldier's personal effects and discharge them without adequate reason, just because of their sexuality. California passed a law that forbade the DMV from releasing actor information to the public because of stalking concerns, but thanks to the stupid IMDB and dozens of other internet sites like people123, that law is rendered useless. IMDB is gospel among industry reps, only because it allows them to be LAZY and abuse their power, and not question what they see. The IMDB is clearly not something the busi |

This was confirmed by several people I've known for a few years who know me well enough to tell me what's going on. Is the imdb run by a frustrated artist who couldn't get work and is now on a mission to ruin as many careers as possible? |

| 164 | Julie Ulrich | 9/23/2010 7:13 | I couldn't agree more! Thank you. Age is private matter. It is respected in other industries. Thank you for the efforts to make it so with us as well. Also there is the issue of erroneous bday input. Maybe they can at least agree not to let an "other" post bday info; make it a field that only the individual can alter---not rep, press, production etc. And if deceased...well I don't know about that. Maybe it's just in the "trivia" section. |

| | | | It's one thing to list age and birth dates and risk people losing jobs. It's another thing to list INCORRECT birth dates and places of birth and then argue with the person who would in fact know their own birthday and place of birth. IMDB presents false information as facts. Take it off!!!! |
| 179 | Lorna Duyn | 9/23/2010 7:25 | yes, remove date of birth and age from IMDB! |

| | | | Most actors don't look their real age, so what's the point of needing to know how old they really are? After all, it's how they LOOK on camera, right? Someone who is older but looks younger will give you a better character performance, hands down, because of life experience. Do we really want every character in every movie and tv show played by a REAL 21 year old? I think not. |

| 188 | Michael Corbett | 9/23/2010 7:30 | IMDB has been to date a very actor-unfriendly organization and their practice of putting actor ages out there has been nothing but downright disgusting. I was right about to "take-off" five years ago and I know for a fact I lost at least two jobs because of IMDB's refusal to remove an age I never put up in the first place. How they can promote something that prevents an individual from putting food on their table completely blows my mind. Not everyone is a star, most actors are just struggling day-to-day trying to keep their health insurance. While people's ages are interesting, it's not relevant. As the daughter of a writer whose career ended when he turned 60, I can tell you that age discrimination is very very real. |
| 189 | William Mendieta | 9/23/2010 7:31 | |
| 190 | Joshua Murphy | 9/23/2010 7:33 | Yes, this is a very good thing! I have asked them before - They simply don't respond. It is also a security issue as most credit check questions are "Birthdate" and "Place of birth" - BOTH of which are on IMDB! |
| 191 | Sasha Carrera | 9/23/2010 7:34 | |
| 192 | Aliza Pearl Kennerly | 9/23/2010 7:37 | Please remove the discriminatory age section of imdb. my friend elly lost a job because of this.....come on!"(arrested development saying) |

| 198 | Brigitte Graham | 9/23/2010 7:44 | |
| 199 | Barbara Niven | 9/23/2010 7:46 | Please look into this... I have read that online petitions don't count they must be validated signatures. True or no? i have had several clients face inaccurate information that has resulted in their losing out on jobs. No one should have ages posted to give anyone an excuse to face age discrimination. |

| 201 | margaret colin | 9/23/2010 7:48 | |
| 202 | Joel Johnstone | 9/23/2010 7:49 | This is true age discrimination and has really hurt my career. I don't mind my age, but I have lost many jobs because I don't play my chronological age. Some years ago, I tried to get IMDB to remove my birthdate, and they refused. I was not pleased. Let's get this done! |
| 203 | chadwick palmatier | 9/23/2010 7:52 | Remove the birthdates. People will not hire you if they think you are older than you appear. We are in the illusion business. |

| 243 | Jenny Eakes | 9/23/2010 9:02 | |
| 244 | Joe Johnson | 9/23/2010 9:05 | My manager has told me of instances when a casting director was interested in auditioning me based on my photo, only to rescind the offer once they saw my real age on IMDB. I am losing opportunities to work because IMDB is allowing potential employers to discriminate on the basis of age. |

| 250 | Michael Linstroth | 9/23/2010 9:33 | |
| 251 | Will Staten | 9/23/2010 9:35 | Yes, it is unfair...because most actors have an age range. Some look MUCH younger than their real age and could hurt them being called in just to read no less getting the role. Thank you for your consideration..... |
| 252 | Elizabeth Maphis | 9/23/2010 9:38 | IMDB should not disclose birthday and age on profiles. I protest. |
| 253 | Michael Navarra | 9/23/2010 9:38 | Please do this!! I still look in my early to mid 20's and have lost auditions due to me being in my early 30's b/c of my age on IMDB!!! Cheers This is a serious issue as it costs working actors like myself opportunities to audition! I know this for a fact, as casting directors have told my agent on the phone, he looks young, but we are not bringing him in cause he's too old. Call it illegal if you want, but it still happens. |
| 254 | Sonia Lisette | 9/23/2010 9:45 | This provides discrimination to all persons attempting a career in an image based business. IMDB has become an employment resource and has definitely hindered leaps that could have been made in many careers. I have personally been victim and can attest to this on numerous occasions. In addition, it is private information and not necessary for the purposes of the website. |

Those of us who consistently play several years under or over our actual ages are being undermined by the revelation that we are (surprise!) older, or younger, than we seem. Our age is private, like our marital status or our sexual proclivities. IMDB is the primary resource for many potential employers; it is not a gossip site, and it should reflect our professional experience only, unless we expressly wish to reveal more explicit personal information. IMDB states that they cannot remove factual information, and yet their information is hardly factual. They have had my age wrong the whole time I've been on this website and they refuse to change it. I agree, actors do not want ANY age listed! They also have me listed as a sound engineer, which I have never been. I have been an actor (ONLY) for 20 years. They also say that if you buy IMDB PRO, you can remove your age info...oh great...BLACKMAIL!! IMDB is chock full of factual errors and missed credits and yet they are arrogant in defense of their errors. It is extremely frustrating and horrendously hurtful to actors careers, and wrong on every level. They hide behind not being able to be located except online and do not respond. |

|-----|----------------------|-----------------|--|
| | | | I sat in the waiting room at an audition as the casting assistant in the outer office and the CD in the inner office were shouting out names to check on IMDb. The CD said "Look up so-and-so, how old are they?" The assistant replied "such-and-such age", and the CD answered with "Too old". That went on for the entire time I waited, as they continued to make a list of actors to set up appointments with for an upcoming session. OH, and to the person who said you can remove your age if you pay to have IMDbPro, that's not correct. Your age still appears on IMDb (the non-Pro version). |

Actors are judged on perceptions. If you tell something, they are most likely to believe it even if it is not true. The difference between 39 and 40 is a giant chasm in the minds of many people. It can be the difference in being offered a role |

| | | | I have watched actors who have managed to keep their age off of imdb get roles of characters more than 10 years younger than them, based on a fact that casting has to go by what they see, not what they know. On the other hand, I have heard of actors not getting roles because imdb had their true age on there and casting went by that. It's ridiculous! Age is personal and should NOT be posted on imdb. |

| | | | IMDB keeps changing my age and has never posted my correct birth date! This is effecting the jobs that I am able to audition for because the casting director sees my inaccurate birth date on IMDB and thinks I am too old or too young. I have asked them several times to remove this information and I have asked them who has control over my IMDB account. I have never seen a response. Thank you. |

| | | | Not only does the knowledge of our age hinder our chances of getting a job (so never mind all the work that SAG did to make sure people in the industry cannot ask our age... now they don't even have to!) but, it is also a HUGE security threat. With identity theft so prevalent, if someone finds your SS#, or any minor info, all they need beyond your name is your birthdate to open accounts, cards, etc. This recently happened to me personally and to my husband. I asked IMDB to take down my birthdate for security reasons. They refused. We should be have power over what personal information of ours is posted on the internet. |

| | | | A Note to IMDB: Please help actors maintain their business & marketing edge. Image and perception are crucial in the entertainment industry. Actual age is irrelevant to the actor, to their work and their talent. The information can easily hinder and even, unfortunately, block an actor's ability to work. Please continue to support the artists you have built such a powerful resource around. Please keep personal age information off of IMDB. Thank you, Mary Buckley |

It was only removed once I sent a copy of my passport (which mind you had my age removed only showing the month and day) then against my express wishes they posted my real age anyway. They make their money off of us but take no responsibility for adding to age discrimination. Age discrimination is supposed to be against the law. Thanks to IMDB it's easy. | | | | Hello, For years I have been trying to update my IMDB profile, but they want you to put in your birthdate in order to do that. I don't have my birthdate on the site, and don't want it on there for many reasons: 1st: AGEISM IN HOLLYWOOD 2nd: IDENTITY THEFT 3rd: NONE OF ANYONE'S BUSINESS Please take this feature off of the site. It's so frustrating and annoying, especially if you are a woman in the biz. |

It is nearly impossible to change false info there. This should be law. God bless you!! This has been a pernicious problem that I know has cost me work again and again. I happen to look ten to fifteen years younger than I actually am (for whatever reason), and IMDB's inexplicable intransigence has had a devastating effect on my life and the lives of countless others. Producers/Directors are theoretically barred from inquiring as to a prospective employee's age, but with IMDB, they don't have to! Please e-mail me if I can help in any way!! | | | | I'm supporting this petition because I definitely believe people should not be judged by factors such as their age. At the same time, another worrying issue in Hollywood is discrimination based on race and ethnicity. So many non-white actors, especially Asian actors (they get the least offers, even less so than Blacks and Hispanics) get rejected in Hollywood all because the folks there have this perception that actors of Asian descent just don't sell well. I would like to ask that you put up a petition on this issue too and hopefully we can help to stop all forms of discrimination in Hollywood based on age, ethnicity, and other physical differences. It is the actors with the best acting skills that count, not on how they should look like on screen. |

| 766 | PJ BROWN | 9/25/2010 6:50 | Stop age discrimination! I for one am proud that I look younger than my age but I hate to think that I wouldn't get cast for something just because my actual age was more than what the character is. |
| 767 | Robert Peters | 9/25/2010 6:52 | It would be really sad to know that during this time; an actor is not hired for their talent and not their age. I'm hoping one day that Hollywood can learn from England. The actors are hired for their talent; not their age or "looks." |

So WHY, WHY would they insist on something that unquestionably hurts people's potential to achieve work?? There can be no gain to having people's birthdays on their site that can outweigh this painful fact! As an actor and a filmmaker I so hope this petition finally makes the difference and brings about this much needed change!!! |

| 904 | caroline duncan | 9/26/2010 10:08 | I have been frustrated for years about this practice at IMDB. No other industry has such a widely used website that posts birth dates. Could you imagine a site like this for doctors, lawyers, accountants or teachers? Age discrimination is rampant in the entertainment industry, and I have no doubt that the posting of birth dates on IMDB affects hiring. As individual creative professionals, we are powerless against this anonymous and uncommunicative Goliath of a website. We need help to halt this unfair practice. |
| 905 | Josephine Cashman | 9/26/2010 10:12 | My clients at Protege Entertainment has lost so many jobs because of their age. Producers go onto IMDB to get any info on the actors and sometimes they see their age. If a client is in their mid 20 but can only play 16-17, then they should have the chance to book those jobs without someone broadcasting their age. Many producers have called me and said we would have given your client the role but we saw their real age on IMDB and decided to pass and not take the risk. That is a shame to all those actors who can't play their true age and lose out on bookings because of this site. Please remove their DOB from the IMDB site. |

| 958 | David Shih | 9/27/2010 1:04 | Absolutely! It's outrageous that imdb does not allow one to remove the year of birth from their profile, once it has been entered. I play 10 years younger than my age. Many casting directors go to imdb as their primary source when researching a specific actor or looking for actors. Many opportunities for actors are lost because of this problem. |

| | | | Good luck. They refused to remove my personal information even when my lawyer demanded they do so -- in light of an extremely serious stalker harrasment suit. They demanded that I provide them with the police report and cease & desist orders from the courts. We did. THEY STILL DIDN'T remove all the info. My SAG legal rep said they have been absolutely impossible. Argumentative, rude & nasty. That said, if you have a fancy enough agent you can pick and choose whatever birth date you want! I have repeatedly asked IMDB to remove it and they will not. And, I've actually had men who wanted to date me look on there, which is terrible. I know many people who have lost work because of IMDB's birthday listings, some of which are even inaccurate. I have known a number of people considering suing them. |

| | | | It is a shame and terrible inefficient that this petition is necessary at all. Such information should never have been included on profiles. It would be nice if professional courtesy in ANY field could keep the "age" question from seeming so important to people. After all it's just a marker by which we compare ourselves to others and is otherwise inconsequential. As Helen Hayes once quipped, "Darling, am I a cheese? Am I a wine? What possible reason could you have for asking my age?" Thank you for your time. Ms. White |

| | | | Having your birthdate on IMDB allows people to discriminate. Plus, I am someone who looks 10 years younger than my age and I can tell when people look at my imdb page because I get called in for roles that I haven't grown into yet. It's a waste of my time and theirs to have me audition for something I'm physically not right for. |

|------|------------------|----------------|---|
| 1035 | Nikki Tomlinson | 9/27/2010 6:27 | Screening actors based on their age is discriminatory, breaches our civil rights, and violates US and international age discrimination laws. IMDb is aiding in this discrimination by providing birth dates on their website for industry professionals to use as part of their screening process. The 'Age Discrimination in Employment Act' of 1967 states that "An age limit may only be specified in the rare circumstance where age has been proven to be a bona fide occupational qualification". Age ranges used by casting directors in character breakdowns are meant to provide a guideline for the actor's apparent age, thus his or her actual age is irrelevant and does not determine his or her suitability for a role. If an actor looks the part and has the ability and talent to perform, their actual age should not be used to prevent them from acquiring work. |

| 1038 | Julie Newton | 9/27/2010 6:35 | I agree that the age should be removed from IMDb.com as well IMDbPro.com. You should not have to pay a fee to have your age removed, which is an option now. However, when you pay that fee, it only removes it from IMDbPro.com, NOT regular IMDb. |
| 1039 | Gita isak | 9/27/2010 6:38 | imdb should have ways for actors and others in the business to communicate directly with a human to correct listing errors easily. My own experience includes one feature film that I have the lead role in and I am the only actor pictured on the dvd box etc yet imdb had me billed as 7th, then I complained and I was boosted to third billing and now I am 7th again. They should also automatically add to one's credits any time a project one is associated with becomes listed on the imdb. Putting the birth year of performers on the site not only makes it very easy to be victimized by age discrimination, it is a serious intrusion on one's privacy. |

| 1087 | Sal Lopez | 9/29/2010 10:17 | I feel the cause is a justified one. There should be no age-related 'get-out' clause for people looking to hire actors. If you look old enough or young enough for a role, then there shouldn't be a problem, and all descisions cna then be based on talent and professionalism. A-listers, of course, defy 'vital-stats' because of their profile. So it's just a cheap kop-out for the majority of other actors to be told, ' Sorry, you're 28yrs old, when what we're really looking for is a 27yr old vibe, ' and then never get a chance to audition. |

IMDb is not the source for such information, it is up to the employer to verify age when completing tax forms. IMDb publishes personal/private information such as age, birthday and place of birth (which is information that could potentially be used for identity theft) without the consent or submission of the person who the information is about. Information regarding credits is public, age/birthdate is private information and IMDb should not be able to publish this information without the consent of the person who it belongs to. Industry people are "confused" and IMDB is their bible for researching actors. Despite dozens of attempted communication to find out how to show IMDB my passport (which is an illegal thing for them to require!) they have ignored me completely and don't care at all how they affect middle class industry professionals. There should be a class action lawsuit - and in fact, I think there IS one in the works. |
| 1119 | stephanie silverman | 9/29/2010 8:23 | I kindly ask of you to please remove birthdates/year of birth from my (every actor's) imdb page. It has profoundly, negatively affected my career and has limited audition opportunities for myself. I personally play much younger than my actual age, and revealing my birthdate year has massively reduced my career opportunities. Not just for myself, but for hundreds, if not thousands more actors as well. Casting directors, agents/managers, producers and the like will call confirm this to be true. This kind of information is of personal nature and should not be involuntarily revealed to the world. With respect and kind regards, Nicole Bilderback |

I have personally known people who were denied the opportunity to even audition for work based on their age. It's wrong. It has always struck me as a violation, the way IMDB broadcasts to the world personal information - including birth dates/ages - about individuals with whom absolutely no contact has been made and no permission has been obtained. With age discrimination existing so blatantly in the entertainment industry, this practice is severely and negatively affecting people's lives. It's time to, at very least, demand the removal of birth dates and ages from IMDB profiles. Please remove the the age from IMDB. This business is hard enough without having this as a block |

| 1242 | Dominik Garcia-Lorido | 9/30/2010 12:53 | This is a total violation of privacy; I've repeatedly asked them to remove my birthdate and each time they deny me. Why should people be allowed to post personal information about someone despite being told, in no uncertain terms, no? So glad someone is doing something! Thank You Ryan Surratt. My belief is IMDB needs to respect our Union Rules. That is: the casting process is not allowed to ask or disclose our age. For the reason of age discrimination, I could go on but, I won't. I just hope for those of you who suffer from IMDB's ignorance are rewarded a 100 times over in the way of jobs and finances. Thank you for taking this on, as it is an infringement of our rights. In addition to the "age discrimination" it is also very dangerous to provide birthdate and place, as that gives enough information to identity thieves to figure out social security numbers! I have an article on this issue if you need it for more support. Just let me know what I can do to help! Thank you!!! Sincerely, Chelsea Unfortunately in this business when people know how old you are they do discriminate despite how old you may look or the ability of your talent or age range. Having an actor's age on IMBD.com is completely unnecessary information for an actor to book a role and can be harmful to an actor's career. Personal information should never affect one's ability to work if the person is qualified. |

| 1297 | Denise McRay | 9/30/2010 2:20 | In a business where perception rules, a revealed birthdate can prevent an actor from playing younger/older roles they might be cast for. It is illegal for interviewers to ask potential employees what their birthdates are. And yet, imdb which is a resource for employers in show buz (directors/producers/casting directors), prominently displays actors' birthdays. Furthermore, having my birthday so prominently displayed (along with biographical details!) makes me a bigger target for identity theft. I am appalled that after repeated appeals, imdb refuses to remove this info. |

| 1301 | John Wildman | 9/30/2010 2:26 | The posting of ages on IMDb has not only been age discrimination but has also been inaccurate. I know people whose ages are both older and younger than their real ages. And only some ages are posted, not all, which is truly discriminatory. |

| | | | The posting of age absolutely leads to age discrimination and can completely nullify what is really/critically important ... how old someone acts, and looks! Everyone ages differently and so little of it has to do with an actual number. Age discrimination in the work place is disallowed & protected by Federal Law, but IMDB's position does nothing, but help break that law. Please remove all birth dates and mentions of age from all web sites the Industry uses. Casting Directors, Producers, Directors, etc. need to look at pictures and meet actors to determine themselves if an actor is right for the role. Thank you. |

| | | | As a producer and actress, I have seen outrageous instances of discrimination in casting sessions NUMEROUS times because of IMDB and their outrageous policy of listing actors and actresses ages - whether they be accurate or inaccurate. Casting Directors use IMDB's resumes and passes out the copies to all the producers in the room. The first thing the director or producer mentions is the person's age. First thing. IMDB and Amazon.com as the parent company are a cause of this discrimination. Many artists are not getting jobs because of the age issue as IMDB is the leading source of resume information used by many industry professionals. I have attempted to remove my age and the inaccuracies many times to no avail. It took many attorneys and a letter from the FBI to finally get some of the inaccurate information removed. IMDB and Amazon should be sued for the losses incurred by directors, writers, actors and other artists to the tune of billions and billions of dollars in lost revenue as IMDB is fully aware of what they are doing, both financially, emotionally and ethically to many artists who have complained at |

| | | | This has been a SEVERE detriment to many of our clients - often the birth date is actually INCORRECT and even after producing COURT APPROVED DOCUMENTS (birth certificates, driver's license, social security information, etc.) it is IMPOSSIBLE to get even erroneous birth dates corrected on the IMDB. This is a profession where looking YOUNGER than your age is a way of life for most working actors. These are "ACTORS", they "ACT" - and if their appearances are 10 years less than their actual ages, their PROFESSION (by it's very nature) provides that they should be able to play those roles. All of this is completely THWARTED by the date of birth being present on the IMDB. In WHAT OTHER RESUME RELATED DATABASE WOULD IT POSSIBLY BE CONSIDERED LEGAL TO PUBLICLY LIST A MEMBERS DATE OF BIRTH? Please remove birthdates at actors request! |

| 1469 | Pamela kay | 9/30/2010 9:38 | I have sent IMDB my passport, birth certificate and driver's license copies with my correct birthdate but they still refuse to change it. I have proof that the fact that they are mis-reporting me as five years older than I am has cost me meetings and auditions...probably work--and these incidences are only the ones I know about! This is unconstitutional--no other profession is subjected to it being 'ok' to ask age, or even gender. This has gone too far. IMDB also has many actors who have mis-reported their ages as younger and are getting away with it. Not fair. I have been pushing for a class action suit for some time now and am very relieved this list is going to be submitted. Anything I can do to assist, please contact me at the above email address. IMDB must be responsible for using discretion in the information they allowed to be placed on their site particularly when approached with a complaint or legitimate request to remove potentially damaging or inaccurate information. |

| | | | IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO HAVE BIRTHDAY'S AVAILABLE! |
| | | | I could not agree more with this petition. It's fosters discrimination. We are as old as we look, and for some of us, that's kinda young. |
| | | | I support this petition fully. An actor/director/writer's age should be confidential as is the case in every other industry. Listing ages on imdb (or erroneously listing, as is often the case), is no different than listing one's weight, drivers license #, or mother's maiden name on a public internet forum. |
| | | | Having the date of birth prohibits actors from playing various roles- people see the date and are biased. This is not a necessary feature- actors should play and represent whomever they are believable as, and right for. Thank You Bonnie Somerville |

| 1512 | Orestes Arcuni | 9/30/2010 1:09 | There is so much age discrimination in Hollywood. Even though someone may look or write or direct as a certain aged person would, people lose jobs everyday because they are "just too old" and sometimes "too young". IMDB has become the first source of information for industry professionals and therefore has the most impact on hiring. IMDB has been uncooperative in the past in removing or even changing birth dates. We believe that age should be private as it is in most other industries. Please remove our birthdates. It could impede us from getting hired. Please. It's hard enough to make a living as an actor. Thank you Wayne Duval |

| 1486 | Robin Leake | 9/30/2010 11:09 | I feel that the listing of one's age and/or birthdate at the very least should be a choice. Not all actors and crew members on IMDB are "celebrities". In fact, quite the opposite and so they should be able to control what information the public has access to at a whim. |

Employment needs to be based on the individual's level of expertise and competency. Age is irrelevant in determining standards of excellence. Discrimination based on age is as egregious an offense as discrimination based on race or gender. |

| | | | As in any industry AGE does seem to have a huge impact on who gets hired. No matter what type of experience and skills that might have acquired. It's ashame that everyone seems to discriminate on someones age because of there looks. No matter if they can do the job or not. Most companies believe that by have good looking people it makes the appearance of their business be successful. Yes unfortunately, we are a society that judges peoples merits by how they look and their age. So hope this will help your cause. Honestly I think it's going to be a hard mountain to overcome but we do amazing feats every day. Good Luck! |

| | | | Ummmm, why are you doing this petition? You do realize if you want you can edit your profile page and take your birthday off? No one is forcing you to keep it there. I happen to like having my birthday listed there and would like to keep it up. So should I start a petition that forces everyone to have their birthday listed on imdb? Just take your birthday off, go about your business and don't mess with what the rest of us can do on OUR OWN imdb profile |

| 1635 | Patrick Kerr | 9/30/2010 6:09 | I agree that the posting of birth years on IMDB results in lost work from the industry. It is how old you look, not how old you really are that should influence getting work. Until IMDB came along, actors never revealed their birth years, because of this reason: AGEISM. I have tried a multitude of times to get them to delete my birth year. I notice I dont get many auditions anymore because of IMDB. I blame IMDB for this because so many people in the business doing the hiring just look at the birthdates and move on, even tho you could easily do the acting job. What right does IMDB have to keep actors from working. What they are doing is wrong. |

| 1603 | Michal Sinnott | 9/30/2010 5:01 | It is so unfair to have this personal info posted when actors are cast by their visual age and not their actual age. This casting starts with the youth. "18 to play younger". Who doesn't look for that 10 year old that can play 6? As the actors age they should not be penalized. We all know It is how actors are perceived by the casting directors and not their actual age. No one wants to be put on the "Grey List" because their age was posted on this site. Yes! this is a very important cause for actors of all ages! |

Anyones age is private information and should be controlled by the individual. If IMDB reveals any age related information it should be AGE-RANGE and that should be determined and agreed upon by the actor. IMDB is violating privacy, and creating issues of age discrimination. |

| | | | When you are lucky enough to look younger than your age, why give anybody the opportunity to discriminate on the basis of age? Given the argument that actors may be deceiving the client, I say "get real". First we are chosen for our looks, personality next and talent perhaps last. Please don't let the illusion that people don't take age into consideration. This is an industry where age can put you at the top or most likely for some, at the bottom. If we can do the job, look the job, act the job why does age matter? It shouldn't, but it does. Please protect us. |

| 1640 | Liz Hanley | 9/30/2010 6:41 | The entertainment industry in general, in particular Hollywood, has routinely abused a variety of racial, ethnic, & sexual bigotry, from mild to harsh, that the rest of this country is not legally permitted to get away with. Birthdate & age "requirements" should never have been used at imdb. The truth is the only people who'd willingly volunteer their age on a normal business resume are in their 20's, let alone in an industry where age is a huge part of why you get hired. This practice should've long ago ceased. |

| | | | IMDB has hurt so many actors, directors and my writer friends from getting jobs with their bullshit age discrimination they having going on. What happened to the Opt out law that passed in June? If a person doesn't want to be on their damn website they should be allowed to remove themselves. EVERY other website even "public information sites" have now allowed individuals to "opt out" of having their personal information listed - ALL sites have complied but IMDB. They should have their asses sued off and the Guilds need to do something about this harassment! |

I wish to continue to be perceived as the age of the character I am portraying - not disqualified because of my chronological age. |

| 1714 | Sylva | 9/30/2010 11:18 | www.IMDB.com is a wonderful resource tool. However personal information like birth years should NOT be posted, if anything but for identity theft issues. | 1718 | lorielle new | 9/30/2010 11:37 | This is a very important issue. Two important points as to why; For one it impedes on personal information for identity theft. Even Facebook has corrected this. And it impedes and influences casting decisions as to whether or not a performer gets an opportunity for a role, etc. whether their physical appearance is right for the role or not. It creates state of unfair oppression...and age discrimination. |

| | | | I've always thought it was discriminatory and a violation of privacy to put ages up on this site and not remove them if someone in the industry wanted them to not be listed. I've heard hundreds of nightmare stories about this site. Real problem. Industry professionals need to do something to stop this harassment, discrimination, violation of privacy rights. It is illegal. Hope the DA presses charges or the industry bans IMDB advertising, putting their products on Amazon. |

| 1766 | johnny messner | 10/1/2010 3:58 | And indeed it's not just actors. I'm constantly reading about writers being penalized because of age. This I completely do not understand. They are not on-camera, and as it pertains to older writers connecting with kids, it worked pretty good for Tolkien, Seuss, Schulz, Stan Lee and the list goes on and on. But discrimination persists. So, yeah, maybe they should give the profile an option to hide age. Would that be too much to ask? |
| | | | IMDB sucks. They always get information wrong and never fix it. They mess up credits, films, people's ages and they really are hurting this industry. Please someone do something about these assholes. |

| | | | This is such an invasion of privacy (in my case they also put my full legal name, wife's name, date of our marriage) and really hurts working actors who may look a certain age but now have to face prejudices associated with what an "age" should be. We are not a bunch of superstars having info in a gossip column. We are middle class working actors trying to fit in as broad a category as possible for work opportunities. IMDB is hurting the middle class working actor. |

| | | | remove birthdates from IMDB and similar and also allow people to delete things from their resumes or imdb blogs about themselves. The only person who blogs about me is the online stalker I have had for 10+ years. It is not fair that a creepy anonymous online stalker has more rights to to my IMDB page then I do in editing him. I am no longer an actor and it is completely bazar to me that even though I have chosen to fall out of the public eye that IMDB still gives a voice to this creepy stalker. If a person does not want the birthday listed it should not be listed. I'm concerned about identity theft. |

| | | | According to my last three agents, my age on IMDB has been the single biggest obstacle in getting me auditions. I truly look ten years younger than my age and it is very hard to get those who haven't seen me in decades to bring me in on roles I'm suited for. When I'm seen for roles that are my age, I constantly hear "he's too young." Its unfortunate that those in casting rely so heavily upon ages posted on IMDB. Starmeter is another number that often influences casting decisions, especially for those who don't understand how starmeter rankings are determined. Stop age discrimination! Lowell Dean |

| | | | It is against the law for a director, producer, etc., to ask me my age, so why is it perfectly fine for my age and date of birth to be prominently displayed on a professional entertainment industry website such as IMDB? I have been a working member of the Screen Actors Guild for over 20 years, and as I continue to earn a living as an actor I face ageism at every turn. If my age is posted on IMDB, I lose work. It's as simple as that. Please don't let this continue. Thank you. Michael Merton |

One response from IMDb was (direct quote): "WE DON'T CARE ABOUT AGE DISCRIMINATION, we just want to be the most complete database in the industry!" Please keep me informed of your progress on this, and feel free to contact me if I can be of any help. |

| 2191 | Rachelle Wintzen | 10/10/2010 6:10 | THANK YOU for this Petition! The Birthdate imdb has listed for me is NOT mine; day, month and year are all WRONG! I am much younger. I've even shown documentary proof of my correct B'day to SAG legal who wrote a letter to Amazon, however, STILL, nothing changed. FYI, I was born on December 23rd. And it's nobody's business what year! Needless to say, I have attempted, numerous times, to CORRECT the WRONG information. And I have also tried to add missing and/or new credits to update my resume but nothing EVER changes. Hopefully, this Petition will accomplish what so many of us have tried to do and failed. Imdb has no jurisdiction to go around accessing and exploiting actors true age against their will...this should always be a personal choice by the artist. No one else should have the ability to post our age as well i.e. other anonymous actors, casting directors, producers, writers, crew etc! This must be stopped and we should go to no end to be sure that IMDB respects our right to privacy....Sag must do everything in their power to protect their actors or else what are Dues and union membership for if we can't even work because of this highly relevant and pertinent matter! Its bad enough we have to endure other artists i.e. writers strikes and our own that fell short in negotiations after pending for a damaging amount of time right at the moment that IMDB TOOK IT UPON THEMSELVES TO BLAST OUR AGE. And btw some ages they have posted are verifiably inaccurate yet IMDB still refuses to remove it or allow actors their own access in order to correct or remove. Lets get a move on this SAG... |

Employers are not allowed to ask age and clearly this site is used extensively by industry employers, particularly IMDB pro. It's no longer simply an information site, it's now an employment information site. This has to stop immediately. |

| | | | Amazon.com and IMDB.com are businesses that are making money off listing actors, and violating professional boundaries by listing sensitive personal info. Where, indeed, is the personal info of those who run these companies? You don't see the CEO of Amazon putting his/her info online. I have not purchased anything from Amazon in years because of this issue. I certainly don't subscribe to IMDB Pro, either. (it's not worth the money, anyway--there's nothing on Pro that you can't get by buying a hard copy of an agent listing, for example) |

| | | | It is very difficult to sell any product when it is misrepresented. let's say you are selling a pair of shoes that are quite sexy and perky but they were made a long time ago. People will think about buying "old" shoes; they will believe, without any examination of the subject, that they are buying an old worn pair of shoes that an aging schoolteacher might wear who has never had a date. No matter how goofy you may find this illustration of my point, it still holds: conclusions about the actor (which is our product - ourselves) will be invalid based upon birth date. |

| | | | While IMDB was originally started as a fan site meant to supply trivial details about the lives of actors, it has become an industry tool for booking jobs. Showing someone's birthday is not only ageist, it's also the single-most career-crippling piece of information to have on an actor's resume. It should be removed immediately, without question. |

If it's so ok and matter of public record to IMDB & Amazon, have their senior execs names, birthdates, SSNs, home address and phone numbers placed on the site b/c that is what people can find with that info. We don't need the invitation to more Rebecca Schaeffer incidents and our right to get employment should not be raped by the lark of a website. |

| | | | Shocking, it is not an actor's choice whether or not their age is displayed on their own imdb profile. More interestingly is that if a birth date/year is wrong - it is not a simple process to get it altered or removed. I have personal experience dealing with this issue for various clients, and the long and frustrating process includes mailing photo identification for verification to the parent company of imdb to get them to alter the information (though they will not remove). This also begs the question - why was their no initial screening process to ensure the date wasn't incorrect in the first place? In one circumstance I had blacked out "unnecessary" information (eg. passport number). I had to check with the imdb admin team for 3 weeks before they got back to me saying that the ID was unacceptable because of the alteration. (Why they needed anything but a birthdate and photo they would not explain). Once they have received documentation, it then takes the imdb administrators a number of weeks to make a change. Imdb needs to better respect the individuals who they feature on their site. This should have been done long ago |

| | | | There is no question that ageism is a growing problem in our youth-oriented culture of today, and nowhere is this more flagrant than in the entertainment industry. After all it is one of the main propagators of this culture. Those of us who must earn a living within this industry are unavoidably affected by it in our search for work. Despite how old you may actually look or act, a simple number by your name can instantly disqualify you from consideration for a role. It is therefore, not only unnecessary, but injurious to one's chances for employment. It doesn't seem to be asking too much of IMBD to remove the birth date from all resumes, and help level the playing field for everybody. |

| | | | ageism is rampant. Having an age on imdbpro just puts us actors at another disadvantage. Knowing our real age might dissuade a director/producer from hiring us. We should be hired on ability and whether we look right for the part. It's against SAG rules to ask an actor his/her age so it shouldn't be public knowledge. It's really no one's business. |

In this industry, age discrimination is more rampant and damaging than any other I know and the people that work as hard as they do to be a part of this incredible creative process do not deserve to have MORE odds stacked against them. A person should not be measured by their age. They should be measured by their capability and whether they appear to be the right fit for the job, whether by experience, "type", recommendation, talent or dedication. Personal information that can change the outcome of an opportunity for work, sight unseen, is a detriment to employment. We do not need another roadblock. More importantly, with identity theft being rampant, and most ID questions revolve around a personal birthdate. Such access to have this specific information available to anyone around the world just makes it easier for the thief to have what they need to succeed. The posting of our birth information can compromise passwords security too! The most common security password code is a person's birthdate. While this is discouraged, it still remains the highest use in password security. IMDB's posting adds to the risk. It serves no purpose for IMDB to post this information without the direct permission of the person they are posting about. Anyone listed on IMDB should have the option to OPT OUT of having any personal information listed. If IMDB needs the information for their own security with clients then it should still NOT |

| | | | As a Drama student at my college and hopefully pursuing my dreams to go to Hollywood and Broadway, I definitely agree on signing the petition. While I do wait for my opportunity to come and still continue my long studies to get my BA, the opportunity is lost to me as the years go by and not get that desired role that I want to play because of my age. While I'm still young I want to be able to play those fun female roles in movies which in the majority are given eventually to younger girls than me when that particular project I want to work in has finally been greenlighted. The same thing happened to one actress that was still young looking but considered too old to play Christine on "The Phantom of the Opera" for example. This is why I'm in favor of this age removal although this could cause more curiosity for the bitter and jealous colleague that wanted the dream role so bad but couldn't audition because he or she was too old for the part nor at the time or place. |

| | | | IMDB has become a major online resume resource for employers in the entertainment industry. And while age discrimination is illegal, IMDB is nevertheless making such descrimination easier for employers to perpetrate, by posting potential staffers' ages. IMDB is putting people's careers at risk, at a time when we can scare afford to lose job opportunities. There is no justifiable positive reason to post ages which outweighs the negative reasons. |

When I tried to remove my birthdate in 2004 I was told I could not. I tried to contact Amazon who bought IMDB several years ago about this - and was given the big blow off. I was going to contact SAG very soon about this so I am THRILLED to see that I am not alone. Thank you for undertaking this. Sincerely, Moreen |

Posting birthdates provides opportunity for discrimination through ageism and violates personal privacy. IMDB is not a news source as evidenced through the gross inaccuracy of so much of the information posted by anyone with a computer and too much time on their hands. Many birthdates are incorrect even! This practice is pointless and harmful. IMDB should embrace the fact they serve as a preferred resource in the industry and should service it as such. I support the movement to delete information about birthdays from online websites for your union members. Thank you. |

In today's industry the age factor is so important in terms of an agency's willingness to invest itself into your future. It is not my delusion that I look ten years younger than I am. it is not my delusion that I have been told how outstanding my work is. I am clear where there consideration lies. It is blatantly evident that IMDB is supporting directly and indirectly age discrimination whether it is their intention to do so or not. That information, in our society, should only be available for legal and official purposes. This business is difficult enough without support the in-built discriminating factors within it. I agree Please remove it now. |

| | | | The trouble is that IMDB has so much power in the entertainment industry that the "reality" of a birthdate could actually get in the way of someone's being cast by virtue of their "perceived" birthdate -- which means age discrimination gets perpetuated, albeit unintentionally by IMDB, but still... They are industry-savvy enough to know how important age is in Hollywood, and I don't think they want to be the "bad guys." They can leave it to the gossip rags to speculate about age, and not sully their own reputation. :-) Imagine Judy Garland not being cast in "The Wizard of Oz" because she's "too old." And how long did Mary Pickford keep up her pretense as a young waif? Do not destroy anyone's illusions -- that's what the magic of Hollywood was built on. |

| 2638 | Brooke M. Thomas | 1/23/2011 11:35 | Please remove birthdays from IMDB. Until they do I've decided to no longer pay for IMDB pro...I recommend other people do the same. |
| 2639 | Francis Fallon | 1/23/2011 11:47 | The site deprives actors from controlling their own image, and works against the basis of what it is to act. How can we project multiple roles, when we carry a label that prevents us from doing so. We are losing work in an industry where roles are few, and numbers are many. Hear the voice of the people you claim to represent, and edit and element that has no effect on your business, but too great an effect on ours. |
| 2640 | sally coombs | 1/24/2011 3:38 | Putting birthdates in such a publicly available place makes actors easy prey for identity thieves, and can only hurt an actor's employment opportunities. It should be a choice of the actor, not IMDB, whether to make that public. |

| 2652 | Vanessa Britting | 2/23/2011 9:40 | I hope this petition will help to remove my birthday and bio that a friend of mine posted on my name without my knowledge. Imdb is turning a deaf ear to the issue. It is getting discriminating and violated the right of privacy. |

As an older (55) caucasian male who has been trying to make my mark in the film world, I have encountered this discrimination over and over. I can tell that 'look' in someone's eye when I appear for a face to face interview and I know IMMEDIATELY I am doomed! And just for the record, this 'look' is usually from some young punk-thing (USUALLY FEMALE) who thinks that just because they have a Blackberry and a MAC laptop out on their desk and they sound like a reject from the San Fernando Valley School for RETARDED VALS they think they hold the totality of my existence in their hands. Well, you know what honeys, YOU DONT! |

| 2659 | Mara Lane *Los Angeles C | 3/1/2011 1:50 | This is a petition specifically for age discrimination. Actors in particular--actually, people who aren't executives of some kind are treated like second-class citizens. IMDB's practices are bringing that to light. You can't have it both ways--the unions were created to protect actors. They also benefit the powers that be by providing structure and boundaries for both sides. The IMDB violates that professionalism by publishing personal info! |
| 2660 | Christine Danahy | 3/1/2011 4:36 | |
| 2661 | amber lancaster | 3/1/2011 9:14 | Please remove birthdates from your website. Hiring practices should not be age-dependent, but rather ability dependent. Thank you, Darva Campbell I have experienced age discrimination as a result of my age being listed on imdb.com. Whether I like it or not, most producers, directors, casting directors will check out my details on imdb. I worked really hard and sacrificed so much to be actress - I really didn't see it coming - I never would have predicated that a website would have created such an obstacle for me. |

| 2641 | Judith | 2/1/2011 3:59 | I'm SO annoyed with IMDB. They have my birthday listed as 4 years OLDER than I am. Several of my friends somehow don't have the year of their birth listed at all. One actress I know, finally got her year up.... and is thrilled because she managed to get her age listed as 37 and she is 50. She is a rare one who truly looks 30 something. I only know she's almost 50 because a casting director friend sneaked a peak at her license when she registered. How in the world did she get listed as being born in the 1970's instead of 1960??? Would love to know. PLEASE IMDB... take off the birth YEARS of living actors and actresses PLEASE. It is an absolute invasion of privacy. |
| 2642 | Robert Bruner | 2/1/2011 4:16 | |
| 2643 | Lee Beffort | 2/1/2011 4:38 | If it's wrong or illegal to ask for your age in an audition, it should not be seen on imdb. It's more of a hinderance than a help with regard to work! I've lost opportunities for auditions because of this! |
| 2644 | Amber Welsh | 2/1/2011 5:56 | The way to shut down IMDB is actors have to CANCEL there subscriptions!!!! Industry pros won't rely on IMDB if actors cancel there subscriptions. Your photo on IMDB doesn't have an effect on how much work you get in this town. Thats a lie. Your star ranking has to do with the popularity of film and television jobs you book regardless if your photo is on IMDB or not. CANCEL YOUR SUBSCRIPTIONS!!! |
| 2645 | jlk@hotmail.com | 2/1/2011 7:35 | please remove our birthdates. Its not safe for identy thieves and stalkers. |

| 2647 | Alessandra Torresani | 2/2/2011 6:31 | IMDB is not a friend to ANYONE in the business. There is no link to reach anyone at IMDB. And no one can cancel their subscription to IMDB. I don't have one in the first place... yet much of my information is up there. It is infuriating to be called in for a job based on my headshot and then have it canceled because they've seen that I'm younger or older than they thought, and therefore may not understand the "sensitivity of a certain age, yet or anymore..." OUTRAGEOUS of you IMDB. I hope to God some savvy lawyer puts a class action case together AGAINST you!!!! |

| 2708 | Izzy McAnders | 4/9/2011 6:06 | It's not just this business, but every business. Hire the most qualified person. Regardless of age. I think displaying the age is extremely harmful to actor's careers. It's just too much info and if the actor doesn't want it up there, it shouldn't be! Ageism is at it's worst in Hollywood. Why would IMDB want to hurt actors? Shouldn't it be supportive? |

Age discrimination is - technically - illegal. But it is amazing the number of ways that exist to allow employers to sidestep this legislation |
| 2723 | Martin Kildare | 4/9/2011 8:24 | this should be optional, not mandatory if it is up there against someone's wishes. Also an identity theft invitation!!!! Guard our privacy, please. |

| 2729 | RIGG KENNEDY | 4/10/2011 1:43 | Just because we get older doesn't mean our brains quit and our ability to produce quality performances goes away. The world isn't totally made up of bratty "young" people. Some of us LIKE seeing the actors we grew up watching perform as they get older and more experienced in their craft. |
| 2730 | Joe estevez | 4/10/2011 2:02 | I personally don't believe that IMDB "needs" to publish a persons' age. There are other sources that can be utilised to ascertain an actors' age & IMDB should be used for what it is intended: Providing knowledge about work history. I don't feel that including an actors' age amongst the information is necessary. And from the point of view of the general idea that we are a society which is driven by youth, having an actors' age posted could put an older actress/actor at a disadvantage when compared to a younger actress/actor. |

| 2738 | Adrienne McQueen | 4/10/2011 7:37 | I would love to see the business move to a system of merit where age wasn't an issue. but they refuse too . Its not just actors that fall to this fate, its ALL entertainers. |
| 2739 | Felipe Riojas | 4/11/2011 12:35 | |
| 2740 | jim boeven | 4/11/2011 2:57 | As a fan it's nice to see our favorite entertainer's birthday, however in today's market they suffer from showing their age and may not get as many contracts as they would otherwise based on age. It's a sad situation and since I would love to see more of my favorite actors/actresses, I'd rather see only birth day and not birth year. Hopefully without the information out there, it will reduce chances of discrimination based on age. Thank you. |
| 2741 | Leonardo Ferraiuolo | 4/16/2011 11:40 | Corporate interests are taking completely over. IMDB exploits people it lists, then turns its back on those people when they ask to have some say in the matter. IMDB needs to offer free customization of profiles, or it needs to close operations. |
| 2742 | Werner Daehn | 4/20/2011 11:15 | I believe that the birth-date shouldn't be displayed at the very top of the imdb page. It should be replaced by the age-range that the actor can play. |

| 2810 | Nina Vincent | 6/27/2011 5:06 | The Unions should get together to create their own database, regulate what they show, and make it part of the dues one pays to have ability to showcase more information. Screw IMDB and their monopoly on our livelihoods! |
| 2811 | Kat Stewart | 6/27/2011 11:11 | This has to stop. IMDB posts personal information without verifying the information with the people themselves leading to inaccurate data which is impossible to correct due to an understaffed, improperly managed company. Furthermore, posted information violates personal privacy and lends itself to discrimination. The fact that the company forces people to buy a membership to alter their own data that they had no choice to post is extortion. The further fact that personal data appearing only on IMDB Pro can be altered once a membership is purchased, and not the general site available to all, is a further act of ruthlessness. A change is inevitable, but it must happen sooner than later. |

You wouldn't go around posting someone's personal address or phone number, why would you publically allow information like a birthday? This information prevents actors from being considered for jobs and IMDB won't even remove it if you ask them - EVEN IF IT IS INCORRECT INFO. |

| | | | Remove the DoB from IMDB |
| | | | Age "look" should be determined by casting directors at the auditions. An actor could play younger or older depending on her/his talent. If an actor's age is known beforehand, the job of casting directors becomes enormously flawed. Let the casting directors do their job in a diligent fashion. let's not facilitate ways for discrimination by not allowing casting directors to know an actor's age beforehand. |

| | | | I am an actor who resents the discrimination I feel when a casting person, director or producer can see how old I really am. Without knowing my exact age I have some years to add or remove from my candidacy for a certain role but with the exactness of my chronological age available at the drop of a hat it takes away my ability to play more characters whom I resemble but with my real age so known it takes away that extra mystery and potential I suffer because chronological age puts me in an unartistic box that takes away all that an actor hopes to use when creating a character within my age range. PLEASE END THIS OPPRESSIVE FINANCIAL AND ARTISTIC BURDEN IMDB PUTS ON ME AND MY CAREER!!! |

| | | | What the IMDB does is tantamount to invasion of privacy. They care only about generating revenue by exploiting people. The government accidentally published personal data on the internet several years ago--this is a crime, and the info was taken down. (article about this here: http://attrition.org/dataloss/2007/03/usc01.html) Why is the IMDB not regulated in their activity as well? Why do they get to do whatever they want with people's information? And why is it taking so long to get the last 170+ signatures?? |

It is absolutely essential for an actor to be regarded as believable in whatever role he or she may be playing. It is the quintessence essence of being an actor. The fact that the IMDb posts birth-dates (of non celebrities) is not only an invasion of privacy but it can adversely affect an actors employment. Some information can skew the perception of an actor before he or she walks in the door. It can't be news to anyone that "ageism" is a major issue in the entertainment business. At a casting session actors are asked to provide a current picture and resume - not a driver's license or passport. An actor is as old as he or she is perceived. | | | | An agent once told me over twitter that he and many other agents, etc., actively use the birthdates listed on the imdb to determine whether they even bother calling someone in for a meeting. They'll immediately check to see if the actor is "accomplished" enough to have an imdb entry (how did we get so entrenched in this ridiculous way of thinking??), and the first thing they checked--AGE. The agent had the nerve to check my page and say, "I'd never call you in. You're over 30. Forget it." Not even knowing me, not even checking my reel. Age was the reason he dismissed my resume, and he didn't even know if the age was accurately reported, which it is not. Actors are treated like bothersome creatures by agents and the imdb, because we're seen only as moneymakers and exploitable, not as human beings who have rent to pay. Heaven forbid we have needs and any CONTROL over the sensitive information people have immediate and subsequently abusive access to. The line was crossed a long time ago, it's time to bring these abusive practices and people back from their utter lack of member DGA & PGA |

| | | | I think it's atrocious that IMDB will not remove a birthdate of an actor/actress who does NOT want their birthdate shown. It may have absolutely nothing to do with ageism and everything to do with personal safety! If an actor wants their birth date removed from their profile, it should be REMOVED. It just takes one click of a button. I don't know why it's so difficult for IMDB to do that! Especially since ANYONE can put your birthday on your profile. What is that all about? You mean, if a stranger puts my birthdate on my page, I'm stuck with it...forever? So wrong. |

This petition needs as many individual people supporting this petition as possible. No doubt people want this taken care of asap, especially since this exact issue is in the press. If the WGA can do it, the actors can, too. |

For casting purposes, an age range is all that is necessary since many do not look or act there age. Therefore, it may be wise and prudent for imdb REMOVE BIRTHDATES altogether. |

He told me in confidence that I HAD to get my birthdate taken off of imdb because my age became an issue in deciding whom they would hire and he had to fight for me! But since then, I've only worked 3 months in the last 3 years! (And that was only because another friend hired me!) This is seriously damaging my chances for work! I joined imdbpro with the understanding that I could remove my birthdate -- and consider it a scam that they claim imdbpro and imdb are unrelated, and they still show my birthdate on imdb!!! |

Many people have lost jobs b/c of a birthdate that many times isn't even right. As actors, we already put alot of our personal information out there, so it is not right that we can't remove our birth dates. |

| | | | Age discrimination is detrimental to people's careers and livelihoods. We all deserve a fair chance to work, and imdb's listing of personal information such as age, birth location, etc (without authorization to put that info on their website) can also be hazardous for people's safety. Stalkers have all the personal info they need off imdb and can intrude on ur life as well as identity theft. And being that imdb does not allow the actors to remove any personal information on their site is unconstitutional (right to privacy). Please have imdb take down all personal information at the request of the actors! Producers, etc. We all deserve our safety and our careers. |

| | | | Age classification takes the 'art' out of ARTIST which is what we who create ,we who make films are all about. It is how we as actors look before and after make-up and creating a role of a certain age. When Paul Muni was playing old rabbis in the Yiddish Theatre he would sneak our for a blintz ,bagel or knish while being 11 years old but dressed and made up to look like an 80 year old rabbi roller-skating to a dell between acts, scenes or when he as an 11 year old 80 year old man HE WAS WHAT AGE DISCRIMINATION AND SHOW BIZ GLASS CEILINGS ARE ALL ABOUT! PLEASE SIGN THIS PETITION SO THAT ACTORS OF ALL AGES MAY BE ELIGIBLE FOR ROLES BELOW OR BEYOND THEIR CHARACTER'S AGE AND THEIR TRUE CHRONOLOGICAL AGE! THANK YOU IN THE NAME OF A ART: COMEDY AND TRAGEDY. PLEASE SIGN THIS PETITION SO THAT WE MAY HAVE THE ADVANTAGE OF GETTING THE JOB THE WAY WE LOOK INSTEAD OF THE PRIVATE INFORMATION THAT IS NOT NECESSARY UNLESS TO TAKE DRAMA OUT OF FILMS AND ALL THE REST! THANX! |

| | | | This age removal from IMDB is a must! IMDB is hampering actors and artists to make a fair and just living in a very difficult industry. There is no point to revealing an actors age. It contradicts the age range of all actors...not to mention that the age info assists possible theft identity to public figures. |

| 3336 | Mathis Fender | 1/11/2012 8:17 | Im furious!!! IMDB/Amazon have NO RIGHT to divulge our personal information on our profiles on IMDB, or to allow anyone to post whatever personal information they please on OUR profiles... Our profiles must never be touched by the general public, only we should be allowed to post on our profiles. Its nonsensical to allow just anyone to post personal information on our pages.. After-all, iMDB is the official move database, not a public fan blog!!!! ONLY the person who's name is on the profile should be allowed to post on that profile... Only allow the "age range"(10 years younger and 10 years older than you are) |

| | | | There is absolutely no reason for publishing the age of an actor. All it does is to artificially limit the options of performers and increase the practice of age-discrimination. |
| | | | So many actors have a wide age range they can play. Both younger and older, but especially leaning towards younger. Age ranges for those passed 40, but there is a huge chance that the people in the casting process who see an actors listed on IMDB will automatically pass them over because of a posted age on IMDB. IMDB should ask industry professionals if they wish to have their age posted say in their personal bio page. let each person choose if it's our career and our life, we should have a say in what is given out the public and industry!!! |

| | | | I have been directly affected negatively by my age being posted on IMDB. I too look younger than my posted birthday and have been turned down for auditions before even having a chance to be seen or to read. Before IMDB, age was never discussed. Casting was based on your look and talent. I wholeheartedly support this action and any legislation that leads to the removal of ages from IMDB- age discrimination is illegal, period! |

| 3399 | Edoardo Ballerini | 1/11/2012 17:42 | Have mixed feelings on this issue. Feel that it should be private because I respect choice. But I don't think hiding age from the powers that be in Hollywood is the best defense against ageism. I think ousting the sexists, ageists and racists with progressive thinkers and creators is our future. But I do believe in choice, some can choose to include age and others can choose to hide it...it shouldn't be up to a corporation to decide that. Corporations are pretty much soulless and out to make a buck at struggling artists' expense. If they respected the artists that choose this difficult career path that bring them and their rich families endless entertainment, they would afford us this slight dignity. |

| | | | This not only hurts acting opportunities, Hello, ANY JOB opportunities. The IMDb page is all over the internet. We cannot get ANY jobs OUTSIDE the industry, also! This is selfish and MEAN-SPIRITED. To the people responsible for this mean act: Put YOUR age on the internet. Put YOUR full birthname up there. People are free to hack accounts when they get your MIDDLE name. This opens the door not only to AGE DISCRIMINATION, but, also: the stealing/hacking into our PERSONAL legal information, banking, etc. etc. Use your common sense!!!! | | | | In selling anything, a description of the item being sold is required. In the selling of an artist, unfortunately, it is not possible to tell what you are buying by reading a number. Someone who is "too old" for a part may have the freshness and energy that is much better for the project than a younger actor. A movie is a world of imagination, not of fact, or Mary Pickford never would have played Cedric Errol in "Little Lord Fauntleroy" -she would have been twenty years too old and by the way, the wrong sex, Helen Hunt never would have been chosen to play Billy Kwan in The Year of Living Dangerously" and i would never have gotten the role of Joanne, a transsexual who had once been a man in "Come Back to the Five and Dime, Jimmy Dean, Jimmy Dean". It's time we all of us- IMDB included- came to terms with what we are actually doing here which is making a story to move and enlighten audiences , the criterion for which is who are the best people for the tasks at hand, and definitely not, except in a most sophomoric mind, how long the person been alive. |

I was 44 years old playing early 30s and opposite a 26 year-old-love-interest as a contract player on AMC. I looked easily 10 to 12 years younger than my age. Once the press and fans noticed, it became fodder for talk: "Can you believe JEP is 43" There were blogs such as: "He's way to old to being playing opp. that girl." or, "He's had cosmetic surgery to look that young." Once leaving daytime, casting directors who hadn't seen me in years didn't believe I could play 5 or 10 years under my age, because they hadn't seen me, only my name, and many thought my imdb photos were either old or photo-shopped. Therefore, many wouldn't bring me in for roles I was suitable for. I was able to change my age to ten years younger for 6 months. During that time, I got much more activity and new rep meetings went through the roof. Once IMDB caught on to the mistake, they changed the year back to my real age and immediately auditions s |

| | | | It's nobody's business how old a film/TV talent is. What matters is their ability to deliver the desired work performance. The Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA), enacted in 1967, serves to protect individuals 40 years of age or older from employment discrimination based on age. Another law protects children from being overworked or otherwise abused in the work place. Since IMDB has de facto become a source for hiring practices it is completely inappropriate, maybe even illegal, for it to post birth dates. |

| | | | Displaying birthdays are also a violation of the equal employment opportunity laws. It is also a security risk because many credit card companies and social security use birthdays to verify accounts and thieves could gain access to those account with your name and birth date. Unless the individual ask for it, there is no purpose or reason to put the birthday. This is also a violation of privacy. Actor's job should be based on skill, talent and ability without age getting into the mix, even though age shouldn't matter, it matters to the people who hires the actors. If entertainment is a business then this wouldn't happen in other industries. Would anyone care to test that theory? There would be lawsuits flying all over the place. Take the age field out of IMDB or have option not to display. |

| | | | I have no idea how a piece is chosen to be viewed and listed under your name. The choices are definately not what I would choose anyone to see if they were looking up my work. How do we get them off and have more control of what goes up there? It's been a real embarrassment to see an episode (my least favorite) from 40 years ago, as if that's representative of me now? Or at least let me choose something I accually liked. who controls this and what can be done? I really want it off there.. |

| | | | This petition is to rally support in order for SAG, AFTRA, WGA, DGA, and any other entertainment unions to put pressure on IMDB.com (owned by Amazon.com) to remove birth dates from their site. We hope that if the unions receive a petition with enough names in support of this action, they will, in turn, put pressure on IMDB -- hopefully, enough pressure that IMDB will voluntarily remove birth dates from all individual's web pages at imdb.com. There is so much age discrimination in Hollywood. Actors are losing jobs because of this. -Felicia Scalone |

| | | | I pay for service of Imdb yet they have been hurting my career for years. I am told almost every day I look 25 or 28. Yet I am 39. Because of that I'm auditioning for roles late 30's to mid 40's! Because casting people see my age on Imdb and assume I look 39 and older! I don't even get to audition for late 20's to early or mid 30's anymore. It's cut me out of getting a ton more auditions.my opportunity has been made into a tiny window. And I'm never really right for older roles or even the ones for my age. But it's all they'll see me for. It's already a tough business. People should get auditions based on what they can play- not the age on Imdb. And even after meeting you they will not get that age out of their head and just assume you are. They don't really look at you. It's hurt me so much already that it might be too late to help my situation, but you never know... |

Our profession is very much based on being hired, based on a "perception" of type/age and not necessarily factual credentials such as how much you know about calculus. Therefore presenting a "real birth date" to the buyers and human resource individuals (aka, Casting Directors) is without question a discriminatory and prejudicial piece of information that is unfair to a professional performer's hiring process and legitimate impartial saleability. |

| 4111 | Yolanda Huang | 1/23/2012 16:27 | I would like to be noticed and viewed by my Talent not my age. As Actors we have a wide range of ages to play. So let the best Actor get the role don't limit us from the start....pd! |
| 4112 | Emmanuelle Vaugier | 1/23/2012 16:52 | I wholeheartedly agree that age should not be a part of someone's accessible information on IMDb. |

| 4205 | Tina Lifford | 1/24/2012 6:54 | If I'm paying a fee to imdb, for imdbPRO, I should have the option to remove my birthdate and age. Unfortunately, age bias exists, and if it harms my ability to be heard, (I'm a screenwriter) I need to have the option to keep my age to myself. This is a no-no! |

If any result, a demand for there to be the option to display or not to display. "It is obnoxious that one take public pride in their age unless celebrating great success at the recent spelling bee." |
